

Training Days
8th & 9th February
2012

Why not become a Mentor? 2012

Students who feel welcomed and relaxed within their environment are more likely to succeed in their studies. Mentors play a big role in supporting students.

Student Mentors / Kai Awhina

- Are a friendly face when new students arrive on campus
- Participate in the campus wide orientation, meet with new students, show them the campus,
- Introduce new students to others and answer their questions, direct them to the right people on campus.
- Help to create a fun and interesting student culture on campus
- Attend 2 required training days – 9.30 am – 2.30pm, 8th and 9th Feb 2012

What Student Mentors get out of it?

- Satisfaction – make a difference to new students; give something back.
- Appreciation from new students and staff
- Certificate for a short course in mentoring! (Great for your CV)
- Get to know other students from all over the campus
- Development of leadership skills

Full OR part-time students can become Student Mentors
We are seeking good listeners who are positive, enthusiastic, willing to help - full or part-time.
